Tuck this paper into your Bible and cross off each chapter as you read it. There are 1,189 chapters.

Possible Goals (mark the one you adopt):

- Reading 5 chapters every weekday will lead you from cover to cover in under a year.
- You could read 3 chapters each day and 5 each Sunday and finish the Bible in a year.
- Read one book of the Bible every weekend. Just sit down and plow through it—it won't take as long as you think. On weekdays, read a Psalm and a chunk of Proverbs.
- Read for a set amount of time (15 minutes, for example) and you get as far as you get.

Possible Strategies (mark the one you adopt):

- Read a mix from the OT and the NT each day.
- Read a Psalm a day and then split your reading between the OT and NT.
- Read one book at a time until you finish, alternating between the OT and the NT.
- You could read an equal number of chapters each day starting in three places: Genesis, Job, and Matthew.
